Animal Sciences / Agricultural Engineering Building - Wings 1, 3, and 5, Mechanical Room Equipment Demolition Work, July 17 - September 16

As part of the NextGen Energy Project, there will be scheduled demolition of out-of-service building equipment in the mechanical rooms of Wings 1, 3, and 5 of the Animal Sciences / Agricultural Engineering Building. No new equipment is being installed during the scheduled work, and there will be no utility impacts to building occupants that will occur during the demolition work at this time.

Location:

Animal Sciences / Agricultural Engineering Building, exact locations of worksites listed below:

- Wing 5, Mechanical Equipment Room 0502, Mechanical Equipment Room 0521, Rooftop Mechanical Room
- Wing 1, Mechanical Equipment Room 0124
- Wing 3, Mechanical Equipment Room B0330A, Mechanical Equipment Room 0330, Electrical Equipment Room 1330A

Dates and times:

- Wing 5: Starting Friday, July 17, 2026, through Wednesday, August 5, 2026, with demolition work occurring daily from 6:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.
- Wing 1: Starting Thursday, August 6, 2026, through Tuesday, August 25, 2026, with demolition work occurring daily from 6:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.
- Wing 3: Starting Wednesday, August 26, 2026, through Wednesday, September 16, 2026, with demolition work occurring daily from 6:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Work performed by:

Facilities Management Department of Planning and Construction (P&amp;C)

What to expect:

- There may be loud work-related noise (i.e., shouting, hand tools, etc.) while demolition of mechanical equipment occurs in these areas of the building.
- Building occupants should expect minor noise and increased FM and contractor personnel around these spaces during the dates and times noted for demolition work at each wing of the building.
- (Wing 1, Mechanical Room 0124) Occupants may notice a smell/odor due to hot works (i.e., soldering, grinding, welding, etc) while work occurs in the wing 1 mechanical room demolition.
- Additional work and closures may occur in these areas of the building to accommodate equipment and the work related to the demolition.

Please share this notice with anyone who may be impacted.
